To Mrs. Imogene Price, our beloved teacher and friend, we dedicate this 1959 Sespriscoan.

This is only a small token of our gratitude for the guidance and inspiration she has given us this year. She was always near with her cheerful smile and sympathetic heart, willing to help us solve our teenage problems. Her understanding has given us new courage to go on and face the future with determined smiles and hearts full of hope.

It would be impossible for us to repay her, and by dedicating this annual to her we are doing so little for a friend who means so much to each of us.

Class Poem

Because we know this is our last night
Before we say good-bye,
We are so sad and weary now
That we want to cry.

We've shared so much laughter
And cried so many tears,
We doubt if there will be enough memories
To last us through the years.

An though we go our separate ways
To find fortune and fame,
We hope someday we'll meet again
Even if it's in memories lane.

So now we have to say good-bye
To each and all of you.
And we know within our hearts
We'll ne'er forget our friends and acquaintances, too.

DONALD WAYNE WILLIAMS
"Learn to live, and live to learn."

Salutatory

I, as salutatorian, speak on behalf of the members of the Senior Class of 1959 in welcoming you tonight to our graduation exercise. It is indeed a warm welcome that we extend to the faculty, school board, friends, schoolmates, relatives, and most of all - to our beloved parents who have made it possible for us to have an honored place on this stage tonight.

As we walk up, one by one, to receive our long-awaited diplomas, we shall bring to an end our high school days. Then we shall turn our faces toward the future. But what lies ahead for each of us is unknown for we shall meet our destiny little by little.

We feel that we have learned so much during our twelve long years of school. We feel that now we are prepared to meet whatever obstacles we might be confronted with. But are we? Are we fully prepared to shoulder the heavy responsibilities of adult life? Are we emotionally strong enough to go about solving our most difficult problems in a calm, yet thorough and intelligent manner? We do sincerely believe that our high school training will surely prove valuable as we attempt to perform our duties to ourselves, our loved ones, our country, and to all mankind. But yet, we realize that we have so much more to learn. Much of this we shall learn by our mistakes; but actually, what better way is there to learn lessons which we can never forget?

We know that our climb toward success in whatever we choose to do will be a long, weary one. But we have warm courage and high hopes for the future. And if we retain the confidence and understanding of each of you here tonight, we shall most certainly put forth our best efforts and the results will surely prove favorable.

So, in welcoming you here tonight, we are hoping that during this graduation exercise you, too, will be sharing our sweet memories of the past and the inward excitement and happiness of this great day. May you look forward with us as we dwell on thoughts of what tomorrow may bring. May you share with us our happiness, our sadness, and our hopes of lives filled with only the very best of everything good.

Again, we bid each of you a most cordial welcome.

Salutatorian
Edna Grace Price

Class History

In September 1947, we the class of 1959, entered various schools throughout North Carolina. Little did we know of all the experiences we were to have. All we were interested in at the time was learning to read and write.

Finally in the fall of 1956 we entered high school as "green freshmen". Mr. W. L. Creel was our homeroom teacher. As class officers we elected: President-Edna Grace Price, Vice-Pres.-Frazier Hardy, Secretary-Bertha Jackson, Treasurer-Georgia Benton, and Reporter-Lerlene Kilpatrick. Mr. Creel invited us to visit him at Kennels Beach one day.

When we entered our Sophomore year, Mr. Rufus Turner was our homeroom teacher. Our class officers were: President-Frazier Hardy, Vice-pres.-C. C. Price, Secretary-Georgia Benton, Treasurer-Judy Price, and Reporter-Lerlene Kilpatrick. In April of that year Mr. Gerald Waters took us on a trip to Fort Macon and back by Camp Lejeune.

Our Junior year was a very eventful one. Mr. Waters was our homeroom teacher. We elected the following officers: President-Bill Lynch, Vice-Pres.-Linda Cobb, Secretary-Bertha Jackson, Treasurer-Lerlene Kilpatrick, and Reporter-Georgia Benton. In March we gave our very successful play, "No Boys Allowed." As soon as we finished the play we started packing to go with the Seniors to Washington. Then in May, we gave the Seniors a banquet. For the first time everyone's dates were invited to dine and dance. Our Junior marshals were: Bertha Jackson, Edna Grace Price, Bill Lynch, Judy Price, Lerlene Kilpatrick, and Georgia Benton.

When school began in the fall of 1958, our group which had been reduced to 23 in number, began our Senior year. Our sponsor was Mrs. Imogene Price. Our class officers were: President-Bill Lynch, Vice-Pres.-Frazier Hardy, Secretary-Steve Price, Treasurer-Georgia Benton, Reporter-McKinley Price. When we received our class rings in October, we were a happy group of Seniors! In January we gave our play, "It's A Great Life." The days began moving swiftly, and before we knew what was happening the Juniors gave us our banquet on May 1.

At last we drew near our aim - graduation. It came so quickly that we could not quite realize that at last all our worries and heartaches had been of some avail. Only a few days after we began practicing for our graduation exercises, we walked down the aisle to get our diplomas. Graduation was over and we were now ready to go our separate ways and accomplish our goals in life.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Seniors of 1959, being of sound minds do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To our faculty members we leave our sincere appreciation for the time they have spent trying to teach us the things we were unwilling to learn.

To our beloved and wonderful teacher, Mrs. Imogene Price, we leave our apologies for all the worries and troubles we have caused her this year. We also leave her our love and appreciation for being so kind, patient, and understanding with us.

The following valuable personal bequests, freely and full given, should be treasured as a reminder of the generosity of the class and the individuals thereof. We trust these responsibilities will be assumed promptly and bring important results.

I, Frazier Hardy, do will my ability to be in the wrong place at the right time without getting caught to C. C. Price.

I, Lynda Cobb, will my ability to "forget what should be forgotten" to Kaye Dawson.

I, Jimmy Brown, will my ability to skip school to Jimmy Grady.

I, Bertha Ellen Jackson, will my Geometry book and my intense interest in Geometry to Judy Raiford in hopes that Mr. Creel will teach Geometry instead of Algebra II next year.

I, McKinley Price, will my excess weight to Marilyn Rouse.

I, Judy Price, will my ability to always be regular with the school bus to Linda Price.

I, Harry Price, will my ability to get out of class to help the bus mechanics to Jimmy Grady.

I, Edna Grace Price, will my ability to flirt to Wanda Hester in hopes that she might make good use of it.

I, Steve Price, do will my cowboy hat to Rodney Barwick.

I, Ella Fulghum, will my ability to make A's on my report card to Billy Singleton.

I, Donald Price, will my Sociology book to anyone who wants it.

I, Betty Jane Wade, will my ability to cut up on class and not get caught to Joyce Fulghum.

I, Ben Hancock, leave my long legs to Larry Rouse.

I, Minnie Ruth Price, will my Geometry book with my very best wishes to any unlucky person who might get it.

I, Calvin King, will my lengthy school career of 14 years, to anyone who doesn't try.

I, Rosa Tripp, will my ability to scrub bathroom walls to Linda Stroud.

I, Emmett Shivar, will all my love to Joyce Garris.

I, Patty Herring, will my World History book and all my notes with my best wishes to any up-rising Sophomore who needs it.

I, Georgia Benton, do leave my slim figure to Lynn Head.

I, Bill Lynch, will my ability to play basketball to Bertha Benton.

I, Donald Williams, do hereby will my ability to graduate to Vann Holmes.

I, Ray Potter, do leave my quietness to the loud mouthed Juniors.

I, Lerlene Kilpatrick, do will my ability to get along with the teachers and principal to Ronald Letchworth.

This document is signed and sealed by Lerlene Kilpatrick

Prophecy

In the year 1969 as I take off in my rocket ship for the moon, I peep out of my space helmet. I see a group of familiar faces going to a big music concert on Mars. Let us stop to see who is in the group. When I stop I see that they are the 1959 graduating class of Seven Springs High School.

The first face I see is that of Edna Grace Price. She is preparing to sing her latest hit and is now practicing at the piano before the crowd arrives.

The crowd is gathering outside. The first person that enters is Rosa Tripp. She is now owner of a successful chain of beauty shops in St. Louis, Missouri. Behind her is Minnie Ruth Price, her greatest competitor, who is striving to lengthen her corporation of beauty shops in the next state.

Next I see Jimmy Brown. It seems as if he can't skip work as he skipped school because he is now the President of General Motors Corporation.

Here comes Patty Herring who just flew in with her husband. Patty is now owner of the largest summer resort in Florida.

Frazier Hardy just joined the group. Frazier is doing well in his mechanical shop on Kinston.

Linda Cobb is very content working as a private secretary to her husband who is now commanding officer of Seymour Johnson Air Force Base.

Harry Price is employed to take pictures of the concert to be published in the Seven Springs Cultured Life. The book is edited by another classmate, Ella Fulghum, who is also a famous music critic.

Donald Williams, who is now Dean of Williams Business College in Seven Springs, now enters.

Steve Price arrives in his cowboy suit. Steve is now the proud owner of a huge ranch in Texas.

I see Bertha Ellen Jackson, who is working on some new teaching methods, entering with a friend, Georgia Benton. Georgia is now the head nurse at Seven Springs Memorial Hospital.

Calvin King is owner and operator of the King Electrical Corporation in LaGrange.

Bill Lynch is now teaching Geometry at the State University.

Lerlene Kilpatrick is now secretary to the President of the Purina Feed Company. Incidentally, the president is her husband.

Judy Carol Price is very happily married and still living in her beautiful home in the Indian Springs Township.

Emmett Earl Shivar is a very famous jeweler in Paris.

Betty Jane Wade has made a name for herself as a successful business woman. She is residing in Richlands.

Donald Price urges us all to be sure not to miss his latest movie, "Teenage Rock and Roll", in which he plays the leading part.

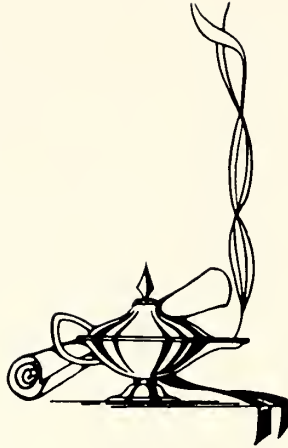

Ben Hancock, who is designing all-occasion cards for Hallmark, now arrives.

A late arrival is made by Ray Potter who is an Admiral in the Navy. Ray just returned from a Mediterranean Cruise.

An equally late arriver is McKinley Price. McKinley is late because of a delay in an auction at his stock market.

I regret leaving this sea of familiar faces, but the doors are closing and the concert begins with an audience of successful Seniors of 1959.

Valedictory

Parents, teachers, schoolmates, and friends, tonight as we are assembled here at Seven Springs High for the last time, the Senior Class of 1959 find that their most difficult task is to say good-bye. I, as valedictorian of this class, have been given the privilege to try to express for us our affection and deepest appreciation to you. This honor is due to you who have guided us to this worthy goal, graduation. This event, our graduation, is the result of many years of work and sacrifice that you have made to give us our education.

To our parents, we wish to express our affection and grateful thanks for the wonderful opportunity that they have given us to receive our education. During these four years of our high school days there have been many depressing and discouraging times. But with our parents beside us they have given us faith and courage when we needed it most. They told us not to stop, but to keep trying and to finish.

Words cannot express the gratitude that we owe our teachers for their patience and the help that they have given us. Their inspirations have led us this far, and point to a future limited only by our own ambitions.

To our schoolmates, we wish to say that we have enjoyed our association with you. We hope that our friendship will continue forever and that someday you will receive the honor of graduating as we are receiving tonight.

For our friends, we want tonight to be a time that they will always remember with us as it marks for us a great attainment.

Classmates, to us this has been a very important night. We have worked hard and labored long in anticipation of this event. The wonderful period of valuable and interesting experiences is drawing to a close. During these years of our educational career we have been building a foundation for the future. Now that we have finished these years of school, I hope we will be able to face our many problems without difficulty as we seek our places in this world.

If one is to be able to live with himself he must first learn to live with others. For several years we have been learning to live as a member of a group. After tonight we, the group, will be separated as we bid farewell and each of us goes his separate way. Although we will be apart, may we always keep happy memories of our years spent together and may good fortune find our doorways in the future.

Again, I wish to express my deepest appreciation to all of you who have helped to fulfill the happiness of the Senior Class of 1959, and now, on behalf of the seniors, I bid you all farewell.

Girls' Basketball

Seated (l. to r.) Marilyn Rouse, Betty Jo Brown, Judy Price, Louise Rogers, Rose Ward, Linda Stroud, Georgia Benton, Geneva Stroud, Wanda Hester, Bertha Benton, Lou Ann Vinson, Rosaleen Smith, Judy Raiford, Linda Price. Standing, Linda Cobb (co-manager), Rachel Whitfield (coach), Charlotte Price, and Lynn Head (co-managers).

The Seven Springs girls' basketball team for 1958-59 was coached by Miss Rachel Whitfield of Moss Hill.

The team elected Betty Jo Brown and Judy Raiford as co-captains.

The girls started off winning all the non-conference games, but when conference time came, they seemed to take a backwards turn. In all they won 13 games and lost 11. But probably the one night they can't easily forget was the night they played the Homecoming Game and beat Grantham, a very high ranking team, by a small margin of 2 points in an overtime period! The girls also lost their first and only tournament game to the opposing team, Mount Olive.

The high scorers for the season were Judy Raiford who scored 490 points, with Geneva Stroud following close behind with a total of 486 points.

Only two team members, Judy Carol Price and Georgia Benton, will be lost by graduation.

There were two Athletic Awards presented this year. They went to Judy Carol Price and Betty Jo Brown.

Boys' Basketball

The Seven Springs boys' basketball team for 1958-59 was coached by Mr. Hubert C. McCleney of Chadbourn.

They had a very unfortunate season, failing to win a single game. However, the team showed some signs of improvement near the end of the season and should be much better next year.

Rodney Barwick and Bill Lynch were elected as co-captains for the season.

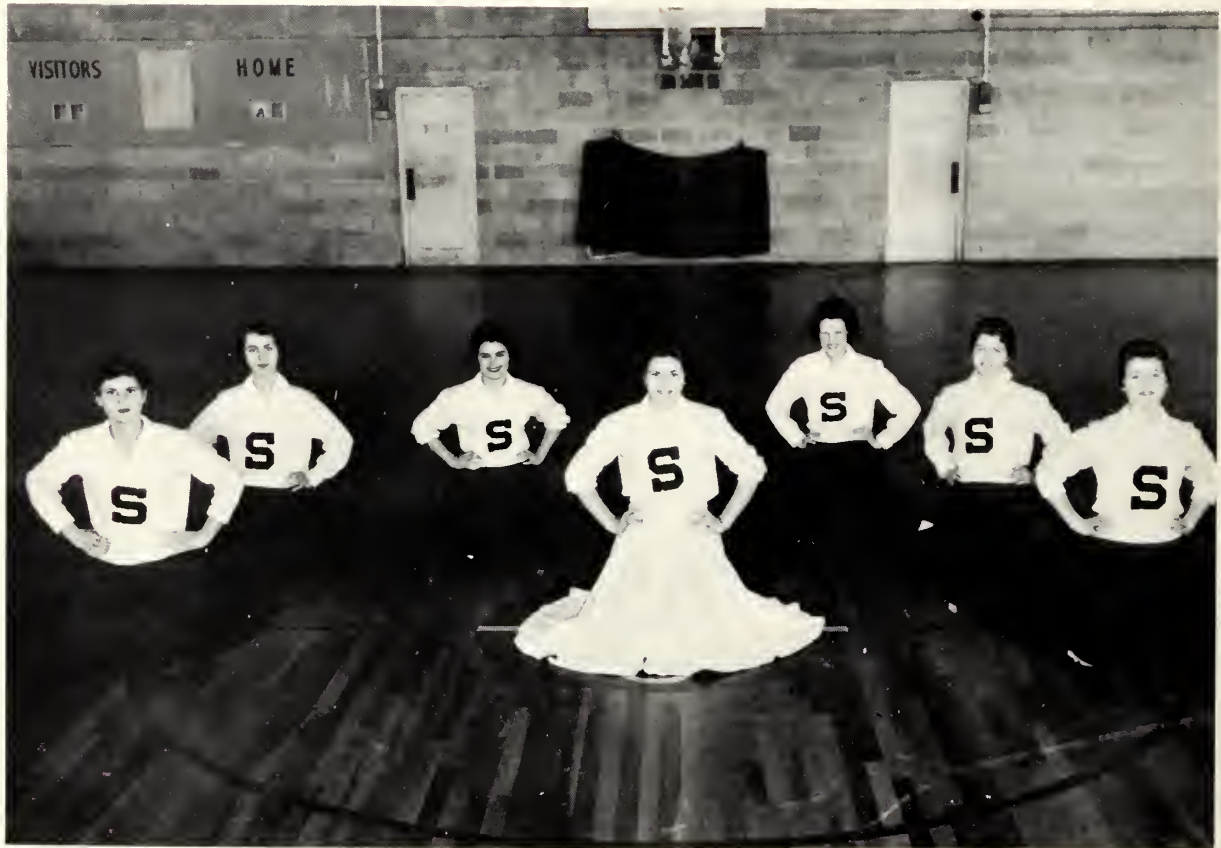

The team was bothered greatly by lack of experience. It was also troubled by injuries most of the season with several members being lost at one time or another.

Bill Lynch led the team in scoring with 241 points for the season. Rodney Barwick was second high with 192 points.

Only two players, Bill Lynch and Ray Potter, will be lost by graduation.

The boys' Athletic Award this year went to a newcomer, Eddie Adams.

Cheerleaders

(l. to r.) Linda Carmack, Doris Ann Crawford, Paula Mozingo, Jan Phillips - Chief, Marie Vinson, Virginia Jackson, Bertha Ellen Jackson.

ACTIVITIES

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
Edna Grace Price

On behalf of the Annual Staff I wish to express our sincere appreciation to all those who have helped make possible the Completion of this book; our advisor, the subscribers, the advertisers, Strawbridge photographers, Delmar Publishers, and every student and teacher who helped in any way. We do sincerely thank everyone who had even a small part in making this publication a success.

We can only hope that this annual will serve as a constant reminder of happy days for all of us. As we look back, years from now, may it offer pleasant memories of the school events we participated in. May it also help us to remember those friends and teachers we might have otherwise long forgotten.

Homecoming

Queen

This year, for the first time, Seven Springs High School chose a queen to reign at a Homecoming Ballgame. The elected queen was Linda Ruth Price, a member of the Junior class and a star guard on the basketball team.

Linda Ruth was crowned by Mr. H. E. Rogers in a ceremony which took place between the two basketball games between Seven Springs and Grantham on February 13, 1959. She chose as her escort Ray Potter. Her court was made up of the basketball teams and the cheerleaders. Billy Adams served as crown bearer and Edith Price, former mascot cheerleader, was flower girl.
